
Everybody Gets To Play!

Recreation Without Barriers

Everybody Gets To Play is a Canadian Parks and Recreation national initiative to help make recreation more accessible to low-income families and their children.

Everybody Gets To Play Community Mobilization WORKSHOP:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2, 2007 : 9:00 am - 4:00 pm
at the CHAPEL GALLERY

This presentation is OPEN and FREE to attend by recreation practitioners, community school coordinators, other community leaders and volunteers.

Please Confirm Your Attendance to the Battlefords Regional Recreation Assn. Office

MOBILIZE Your Community:

- ◆ Understand how poverty, language, and culture affects participation in recreational programs.
- ◆ Look at how your organization meets the needs of families in your community.
- ◆ Persuade people, organizations, and governments to get involved.

Everybody Needs To Play

Kids need recreation to develop strong bodies, healthy minds, and social skills

You Can Help - Mobilize Your Community. Together We Can Make A Difference.

Battlefords Regional Recreation Assn., Phone: 446-6776; Fax:
446-7172; brra.cynthiat@sasktel.net.
Visit www.cpra.ca for more information.